

WHAT IS CLASSIC CITY?

Centered around service and social justice, campers have the special opportunity to participate in local service projects alongside Athens non-profits. While learning about their new Athens-Clarke County community, Dawg Camp Classic City participants develop leadership skills and create involvement plans for their first year at UGA.

Take a look at what past participants and counselors had to say about Dawg Camp Classic City:

“My experience at Classic City set me up for success at UGA in ways I didn’t know were possible. Not only did I find a family before entering college, but I built these friendships while serving the Athens-Clarke County community we all love.”

- Sydney Matheny,
Dawg Camp Classic City 2016 participant

“Pre-Dawg Camp Austin and Post-Dawg Camp Austin are two completely different people. Coming into Dawg Camp, I was very uncertain about my decision to attend UGA because I did not understand how I could excel at such a large university, nonetheless make it my home. Overall, I was not very familiar with UGA or Athens and Dawg Camp completely changed that. Classic City was the place where I met some of my best friends, filled my stomach with some of Athens’ best food, and learned about so many ways that I could live, grow and serve in the UGA-Athens community. It’s true: Dawg Camp is the place to be and home is where the arch is.”

- Austin Gibbons,
Dawg Camp Classic City 2016 participant

“Dawg Camp Classic City has pushed me out of my comfort zone in the best way possible. The honor of serving the Athens community is incomparable. I have never experienced something so incredibly humbling and unique as exploring different ways to give back to the community that has given so much to me.”

- Jacquelyn Harms,
Dawg Camp Classic City 2016 counselor
