Position Information: The Center for Leadership and Service (CLS) invites applications for one summer undergraduate media intern position with the 2020 Dawg Camp Extended Orientation program. The intern will play a vital role in the documenting and highlighting of Dawg Camp programs – primarily, Dawg Camp Discovery, Connect, Fusion, Rise, Innovate, and Classic City. The intern will work with CLS staff and Dawg Camp Leadership Team members (student coordinators) to build promotional and record keeping media materials. The intern will also work on several special projects, which will be dependent upon their strengths and/or interest areas.

Program Information: Dawg Camp is a way for incoming first-year students to find their place at the University of Georgia. Dawg Camp assists in the transition from high school to college by exposing participants to student life at UGA and providing the opportunity for mentorship by Dawg Camp Counselors. Dawg Camp also gives participants a chance to make connections in order to get a head start on their college careers while learning about leadership, service, and involvement opportunities.

Each camp has a specific focus – service, music, adventure, innovation, and spirit/traditions – that will allow incoming students to get the most out of their Dawg Camp experience and thrive in their first year at UGA. For more information on each Dawg Camp program, click here.

Qualifications: This internship is best suited for an undergraduate level student with skills in photography, videography, editing, and knowledge of media software and equipment needed to produce a high quality product.

Dates of Internship: This position will run from Friday, May 29, 2020 to Friday, August 14, 2020.

Below is a list of Dawg Camp Program dates:
- Dawg Camp Classic City, Session 1: June 2 – 6, 2020
- Dawg Camp Classic City, Session 2: June 9 – 13, 2020
- Dawg Camp Fusion: June 16 – 20, 2020
- Dawg Camp Connect: July 8 – 11, 2020
- Dawg Camp Adventure, Session 1: July 7 – 8, 2020
- Dawg Camp Adventure, Session 2: July 14 – 15, 2020
- Dawg Camp Innovate: July 14 – 28, 2020
- Dawg Camp Rise: July 17 – 21, 2020
- Dawg Camp Discovery: July 24 – 26, 2020

The intern will be working primarily with the Classic City, Fusion, Connect, Rise, Innovate, and Discovery programs, but may have opportunities to interact with the Adventure program pending need.

Compensation: A total stipend of $500.00 will be provided upon successful completion of this internship. Upon successfully completion of this position, the intern will also receive Experiential Learning credit.

Additional compensation elements: Lodging, transportation, and all meals will be provided for the Dawg Camp Discovery weekend at FFA Retreat Center. Meals will also be provided at select times during the other Dawg Camp programs. The intern will receive...
Dawg Camp program-specific uniform pieces as well as office space in the Center for Leadership and Service if needed.

Successful candidates may also be offered the opportunity to continue their internship in the fall semester for an additional stipend.

Position Function:

The Dawg Camp Media Intern will play a vital role in the documenting and highlighting of Dawg Camp. The intern will report directly to the Senior Coordinator for Leadership & New Student Engagement in the CLS and work closely with the Dawg Camp Leadership Team. Primary job responsibilities are below:

- Attend and document components of the Dawg Camp Classic City program – a service-based extended orientation experience for incoming first-year students
- Attend and document components of the Dawg Camp Fusion program – a music and arts focused extended orientation experience for incoming first-year students ending with attending AthFest (a local music festival)
- Attend and document components of the Dawg Camp Connect program – a transfer student extended orientation experience
- Attend and document components of the Dawg Camp Rise program – an extended orientation experience for participants in the RISE Scholars program
- Attend and document the entire Dawg Camp Discovery program – a school spirit based extended orientation program focused on UGA history and traditions for 250 incoming first-year students
- Attend and document the entire Dawg Camp Innovate program – an innovation and entrepreneurship based extended orientation program for 20 incoming first-year students
- Attend and document components of the Dawg Camp Adventure and program as needed
- Work with CLS staff and Dawg Camp Leadership Team members in creating a vision and action plan for execution of the internship.
- Produce multiple short Dawg Camp recruitment videos for each camp, as well as a general highlight video for the Dawg Camp program.
- Interview Dawg Camp Counselors and participants for video footage
- Take photographs at each program for social media efforts
- Other duties as assigned; special projects as agreed upon

Application Information:

Applications are open until the position is filled, with a hard deadline of Monday, February 10, 2020.

Please turn in your application as soon as possible to increase your chances of being considered for this position. After the application review session, candidates selected to move on to the next round will participate in an individual interview and asked to give examples of their work and/or documentation of their ability.

To apply, contact Kaitlyn Shepard at kshepard@uga.edu stating your interest in the position and a meeting will be scheduled from there.

About the CLS:

The Center for Leadership and Service empowers students to intentionally engage in leadership education and experiential service learning. The CLS aims to develop the qualities that make UGA students stronger active citizens. For more information about the Center for Leadership and Service, click here.