A three-day weekend retreat alongside 250 other incoming first years is the perfect way to jumpstart any student’s collegiate career. Recognizing strength through diversity, Dawg Camp Discovery grants participants the opportunity to learn about leadership and campus involvement, as well as, UGA history and traditions.
Take a look at what past participants and counselors had to say about Dawg Camp Discovery:

“Going to Discovery is the absolute BEST decision I possibly could’ve made going into my first year at UGA because it introduced me to my best friends (aka my new family), gave me information on how to get involved on campus, and completely changed the way I view myself and other people. Even though camp is over and I’m about halfway into my first semester, it still to this day helps me meet amazing people and foster deep and incredibly meaningful relationships that I definitely wouldn’t have had if I hadn’t gone to Dawg Camp.”

- Alafia Adeleke, Dawg Camp Discovery 2016 participant

“Discovery has been by far the greatest decision that I could have ever made to prepare myself for coming into freshman year. The friendships and connections that I made there have proven to be the most impactful factors influencing my success and enjoyment here at UGA so far!”

- Mac Corbitt, Dawg Camp Discovery 2016 participant

“You might have heard past Dawg Camp participants, flyers, or propaganda say "Go to Dawg Camp! It's the place to be!", but what does that actually mean? I know that as a student who had no idea what Dawg Camp truly was, that statement can be confusing. I didn't attend as a first-year because like many, I THOUGHT I was too cool. I can hands-down tell you that is by far my biggest regret of college thus far. That is how amazing Dawg Camp really is and can be for you. I quickly learned why Dawg Camp IS the place to be. When you click that "register" button, you are automatically a part of a new family and community, with a purpose and passion that is bigger than yourself. So do it, don’t let not attending Dawg Camp be your biggest regret, but instead let it be your source of pride and joy. Go Dawgs and Go Dawg Camp!!”

- Jesse Kerzner, Dawg Camp Discovery 2016 counselor
